NEW YORK TIMES

OCT 3 1963

CPYRGHT

CPYRGHT

Castro Hints He Will Negotiate on Prisoners

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2

Democratic Representative ro Oregon, who went to Cuba on ferred with Premier Castro for five hours today and expected

WASHINGTON, Oct. 2 — row,

The move toward negotiating day to the formation in Htvana of a committee of families sands of political prisoners beparently as the first step toward negotiating their release.

Dr. Castro's agreement was reported in a cablegram to a Miami families' committee from Charles O. Portar, a former Charles Others Freed for Supplies

The move toward negotiating day. Mr. Porter, who also is a find other products, the committee may be faced with a unconditions, if any, Dr. Castro presented for aegotiating their release.

Premier Castro, however, has always taken the view that the damage caused by what he describes as "counterrevolutionaries" if their prison terms

Others Freed for Supplies

Democratic Representative ro
Oregon, who went to Cuba on a magazine reporting assignment and on behalf of the group tained through personal negoof prisoners' relatives.

Mr. Porter said in his message to Mrs. Consuelo Valverde, president of the Miami-based Committee for Amnesty of Foilitical Prisoners, that he conferred with Premier Castro for to meet with him again tomor-million worth of medicine and tro sets a

Sanitized - Approved For Release: CIA-RDP75-00001R00010036001